

K-Love has been the only station that I listen to for over a year now. I appreciate the fact there is no commercials. When people come into my office I can minister to them by way of this music, thereby planting seeds of Christ. When I travel across the United States, it's a comfort knowing that no matter where I am I can tune into KLOVE, and be comforted by voices that I feel I have come to know personally. When I am in an area where I cannot get the KLOVE signal, I have tried to listen to other stations, but I don't appreciate the remarks or innuendos of these DJ's. It's nice knowing that I don't have to worry about things like that with KLOVE, especially when children are with me.
